Study Abroad Application Timeline
Summer 2022, Fall 2022, and Academic Year 2022-2023

The process to study abroad during Summer 2022, Fall 2022, and Academic Year 2022-2023 will require multiple, important steps and phases. University study abroad staff will help you navigate these steps, but we expect you to actively assume responsibility for your own study abroad process and experience. The university will continue to review conditions and retains the right to cancel programs in the interest of student well-being as necessary.

Now until February 14
- Important information regarding Summer 2022, Fall 2022, and Academic Year 2022-2023 planning will be provided on individual programs.
- Students are expected to respond to additional application questionnaires, including the COVID-19 Student Assessment and Action Plan, based on information provided by the application deadline.
- REQUIRED ACTION: Schedule an advising appointment or attend an info session with the advisor or office indicated on your program’s brochure under the contacts and/or resources tab.
- Review the unofficial program budget and consult the Office of Financial Aid on how your aid package applies to your study abroad program.
- Locate your passport and ensure that it is valid for more than six months past your program’s end date.

February 15 at 11:59 pm
- Application deadline for Summer 2022, Fall 2022, and Academic Year 2022-2023 programs. All advising, questionnaires, and materials must be completed and submitted by end of the day. Some programs may have different application deadlines. Refer to your program’s brochure page to confirm the deadline and term.

Starting February 23
- Application and program decisions will be sent to student via email.
- REQUIRED ACTION: Accepted students should confirm their participation by the deadline provided in your acceptance email.

February 23-March 15
- REQUIRED ACTION: Schedule a course planning meeting with your Academic Advisor no later than March 15.

March 15
- All post-decision requirements must be submitted in My Study Abroad application portal.

Important reminders: Students are expected to continue monitoring updates from their intended host country such as vaccination, arrival, quarantine, and testing requirements. International students currently in the U.S. should meet with an advisor in the International Student and Scholar Services to acquire any necessary travel signatures and documents.
